What We Do

Cfe Tax Services is helping small and medium-sized businesses to maintain proper tax records and comply with on-going tax rules and regulations, at the same time allowing entrepreneurs and managers to make the most of their work and their lives.

Our Services

Cfe Tax Services provides strategic tax planning services, and representation of clients in resolving matters with tax collection agencies in the United States.

Cfe Tax Services provides customized tax planning services for a select group--the owners of closely-held small to medium-size businesses.

Because of this specialization, the professionals of the Cfe Tax Services' team can keep abreast to the beneficial changes in the tax law providing potential opportunities for the business owner.

We are familiar with the pitfalls most businesses encounter (and the IRS's approach to dealing with them).

Smart Year-End Tax Move's That Can Save You Millions!

"Take all the deductions you can this year because next year is up in the air," advises Philip Liberatoro, a certified public accountant in La Mirada, Cal. With a little investment of time now, year-end tax planning may reward you with a bigger refund next April, or even some cash right now.
